Woodward has been an inmate of the Massachusetts state prison at Charless town about four years and a half, and now seeks to be freed.

AT CREENVILLE

When Woodward was sentenced he had been convicted on four out of ten indictments charging use of the mails in a scheme to defraud. On three of the indictments he was given sentences of eighteen months each, and on the fourth a sentence of six months. Hav ing served the three eighteen-month sentences he now petitions for his re-lesse on the ground that a sentence of six months cannot be served at Charlestown on account of the law which provides that the minimum sentence on which a sentenced man can be sent to state prison is one year.

Woodward has been arrested thirtypreme court.

In 1897 he was released from Sing years for blackmailing a New York capitalist to the extent of $100,000. He has operated extensively in England, where he conducted a sumptnous establishment at Kensington and was known as the Hon. Lionel Musgrave. He was at one time an accomplice of "Bunco" Reed, who escaped from the custody of a state prison officer while in a hotel in Worcester. Woodward is a highly edu-cated man, speaking many languages Since his Charlestown he has related that he is the son of a British army officer and a Brahmin woman of high caste.
